Stewardship Reflections on Reflection

How often do we gaze into a night sky to admire a bright, full moon? Often it seems ablaze with a bright yellow or sometimes orange glow, and we think, "What a beautiful sight the moon is." Actually, the moon is craggy and dusty, inhospitable, gnarly and cratered. The beauty of the moon as seen from far away is just a reflection of the sun's light as the moon has no light of its own. We don't see the imperfections unless we use a powerful telescope.

God sees us as we see the moon, a beautiful creation reflecting the Son's light as we choose to follow the path He has laid out for us. He can easily see our imperfections but chooses to ignore them if we confess our sins and ask for forgiveness. Just as the moon goes through different phases exhibiting more or less light so do we. Our struggles and trials in this earthly life cause us to wax and wane in our faith but Jesus, our light source, is always there and He shines through us if we choose to be His prism.

How does this analogy relate to stewardship you may ask? I guess it really doesn't, sometimes I just ramble. As an update to reflect on the progress of our capital campaign, we now have received $61,000 toward our goal of $100,000. We originally used Thanksgiving as an end date. Could we move the campaign goal date up to Halloween? Let's use the month of October to reach our goal and to revive our facilities and our spiritual lives to reflect the full moon beauty of which we are capable.

Safe Berks 24th Annual Silent Witness March & Dedication

Tuesday, October 14, 2025

11 a.m. – Gather at Safe Berks, 255 Chestnut St., Reading

11:15 a.m. – Silent March to The Miller Center for the Arts- Reading Area Community College (RACC)

Noon: Dedication Ceremony at RACC, followed by lunch

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

There are several ways our congregation can support this SAFE BERKS event, and they are all completely free! The walk and luncheon are open to the public. You may choose to participate in the entire event or, depending on your time and abilities, attend either the walk or the dedication/lunch portion.

No reservations are required, but it is helpful to their planning if we give them an idea of how many people will be attending the luncheon. I am hoping to be able to attend both portions of the event and encourage each and every one of you to prayerfully consider joining a Calvary team to show our community support.

No matter what you decide, everyone can offer their prayers for the success of this event and for an end to the tragedy of domestic violence homicide. If you are attending on behalf of a lost family member or loved one, please let us know by October 9th at MindyM@SafeBerks.org or 610-373-1206 ext. 127
