OCT 26 HAVE YOU EVER FELT FEARFUL OF WHAT OTHERS MIGHT THINK OF YOUR FAITH? HOW HAVE YOU OVERCOME THAT FEAR?

On Sunday, November 2nd, we'll observe All Saints' Sunday during the 10:30 am worship service. All Saint's Day is typically the Sunday we pause to remember and give thanks for those who have gone before us in faith during the current year—family, friends and fellow believers who have touched our lives and pointed us to Christ.

As this day approaches, we ask that you think of those in your life who passed this past year and email their names to administrator.calvmohn@comcast.net. The names provided will be announced one by one followed by the ringing of a bell. A family representative will be invited to come forward to light a candle for that individual during the service.

Please email the names of those who you wish to honor that passed away in 2025 by Sunday, October 26th.

What: Congregational Supper featuring Jay Smar – Folksinger

When: Sunday, November 9 at 5:00 p.m.

Where: Calvary Social Hall

Who – all members of Calvary, friends and neighbors

R.S.V.P. to Madalyn Como in the church office – 610-777-8441 (Please let her know how many will be attending and whether you will bring a side dish or dessert.)

Most of the time, the In-It-to-Gather Committee is planning ways for the senior members of our congregation to connect but our next activity is specifically planned to be inter-generational and appeal to families and all ages.

Jay Smar, a well-known folksinger and entertainer in the state of Pennsylvania, is coming to Calvary on Sunday, November 9th to present a program of varied folksongs which offer glimpses into American history. Jay plays several instruments as he presents several kinds of folk music and also demonstrates a type of dance known as flat-foot clogging.

We know how much our congregation loves to eat and socialize so there will be supper at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Our committee will provide several kinds of barbecue and drinks, and we ask you to bring either a side dish or a dessert.

Following supper at 5, Jay will present a 45-minute program appealing to all ages. We'll take a dessert break and then Jay will conclude his program with about 20 more minutes of music. We expect the whole program to be over between 7:15 and 7:30.

We are so excited to host this get together and hope you all can come. Please invite friends and neighbors to join us! We just ask that you get in touch with Madelyn Como in the church office and let her know how many people will be coming and whether you plan to bring a side dish or dessert. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch Kay Wadsworth at 484-269-0552. We're looking forward to seeing you on November 9th at 5:00!!

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and there is a way for Calvary members to support the mission of SAFE BERKS. It is very simple and will only cost a dollar. While you are in the church on Sunday mornings, look for one of our youth to sell you a purple ribbon. All ribbons will then be displayed in the Gathering Area to show the community that we care. We will begin selling ribbons on Sunday, October 19.

Thank you for your support, Church Liaison, Diane Anderson

Best Gift for Your Pastor permission from churchart.com

October is Pastor Appreciation Month—a time to recognize and encourage those who faithfully shepherd our churches. But if you've ever asked a pastor how to show your gratitude, the answer probably isn't a plaque or applause. More often than not, it's simple: "Pray for me."

Even the Apostle Paul didn't ask for much personally, except for the prayers of fellow believers. In his letter to the Romans, he wrote: "Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the saints; so that I may come to you in joy by the will of God and relax in your company" (Romans 15:30–32, NASB).

PASTOR Appreciation

This October—and every month—encourage your pastor by offering your prayers, support, and kind words. Ministry can be demanding, but knowing the church is lifting them up makes all the difference.
